

House Resolution No. 2398

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Bryan Lucas Moorefield of Troop 9 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on April 23, 2005, at First United Methodist Church in North Kansas City; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Bryan through the billets of Senior Patrol Leader, Scribe, Historian, Patrol Leader, and Assistant Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Bryan earned him induction into the Order of the Arrow Ordeal, Warrior status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, a Historic Trails Award, the World Conservation Award, and numerous merit badges which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Bryan applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including a trip to Brown Sea, five Summer Camps at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation, and numerous North Star District Spring and Fall Camporees; and

Whereas, Bryan completed an Eagle Project which consisted of constructing shelving and repainting a parking lot at Saint Pius X High School to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait which justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Bryan Moorefield during his long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Bryan Lucas Moorefield, son of Mike Moorefield and Ann Holwick of Kansas City, Missouri.
